When using GoEdit on your own Server with "GoEdit for Confluence (Server)" or "GoEdit for JIRA (Server)" all data will be kept and stored within your environment, that is your server and your client which edits the attachment.	When using GoEdit in Atlassian Cloud "GoEdit for Confluence (Cloud)", an Atlassian recommended cloud platform called Amazon AWS is used for hosting Atlassian Cloud plugins to comply with all local laws. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. During the attachment editing process attachments are temporarily stored on our Amazon AWS server.</li><li>2. All communication and file transfers from Atlassian Cloud to our server and any other component is performed encrypted via a SSL protected connection.</li><li>3. After the editing process has been finished or cancelled, your attachment and drafts are entirely deleted from our server.</li><li>4. We do not store any of your Atlassian Cloud data or content on our server persistently or exclusively - your data always resides on your Atlassian Cloud server.</li></ol> KontextWork does not store any personal information (e.g. name, e-mail, address) at Amazon AWS. The hosting region is eu-central-1, Germany – Frankfurt

3. Personal information

1. Atlassian makes available certain technical contact and billing contact information via their Sales API when the plugin is installed and a license (evaluation or full) is applied to the plugin. Please see Atlassian's privacy policy (<https://www.atlassian.com/legal/privacy-policy>) for details on how they treat your information.
2. KontextWork automatically analyzes the Sales API and stores license related data (e.g. company name, license volume) as well as the email address.
3. If you are installing a non-evaluation license of GoEdit you agree that your email address is added to the "GoEdit for Confluence" or "GoEdit for JIRA" mailing list. If you wish that your email address is removed from the list, you can unsubscribe permanently using the link in the footer of any of the emails generated by the list.

4. Changes to Privacy Policy

KontextWork may make changes to this privacy policy by giving 30 days notice of the changes on the <https://goedit.io/blog/> website.
